

THIS IS WOMEN'S WORK

FREE, ALL-WOMEN
PRE-APPRENTICESHIP
for the building trades

INFORMATION SESSION

Th, Jan 24 | 5:30pm - 6:30pm
at Latino Academy

1917 Lake Point Dr. | Madison, WI 53713

Women interested in applying for the UW-Madison School for Workers pre-apprenticeship program are encouraged to attend an information session. The session will outline the pre-apprenticeship curriculum, trades career support options, and the application process.

- Children are welcomed to attend with you
- Snacks and drinks provided
- Attendance is not a requirement to apply for the full program series

#MADISONWOMENINTRADES

UW—Madison School for Workers is offering a free pre-apprenticeship program for women interested in exploring career pathways within the building trades industries. The hands-on experience is a series of 44 hours, held over four Thursday evenings and four Saturdays beginning in February 2019.

Applications now being accepted!

Become a plumber, or carpenter, or electrician, or operating engineer...

GET STARTED

If you're ready to apply, contact School for Workers at 608.262.2112 or e-mail Heidi Wagner at hewagner@wisc.edu.

MORE INFO

Join us for an information session or visit us online at schoolforworkers.wisc.edu.