

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR WORKERS

University Committee

John R. Commons Max C. Otto Frederick W. Roe

Advisory Committee

Helen Everett Meiklejohn, Chm.	Mrs. Harry Jerome
Mary Andersen	Julia Kaker
J. G. Childs	George W. Mead
John B. Coleman	Florence Pride
George L. Collins	Henry Rutz
M. A. Freschl	Harold E. Steele
Jac F. Friedrich	Maud Swett
Zona Gale	Ernest Schwarztrauber
Dorothy Hubbard	Mrs. Mark G. Troxell

Executive Secretary

Alice Shoemaker

School for Workers in Industry
THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
1214 WEST JOHNSON STREET
MADISON, WISCONSIN

*"The Challenge of the Depression
to Agriculture, Industry, and Labor"*

A Labor Institute under the auspices of

The Summer School for Workers in Industry of the University of Wisconsin

July 29 to 31, 1932

Room 165 Bascom Hall

MADISON

Program

Friday, July 29

7:30 to 8 P. M. Registration.

8 P. M. Welcome and address.....President Glenn Frank
Some Ways Out of the Depression.....Professor Paul Douglas
Economics Department, University of Chicago

Saturday, July 30, 9 A. M.

Labor Income and the Farmers' Market.....Max Leopold
Secretary, Wood County Farm Bureau Federation

Discussion leaders: Professor B. H. Hibbard, Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Wisconsin; J. J. Handley, Secretary, State Federation of Labor; H. F. Wyatt, Scanlan-Morris Company, Madison.

Saturday, 2 P. M.

The Employer and the Depression.....George W. Mead
President, Consolidated Water Power and Paper Company, Wisconsin Rapids

Discussion leaders: Tom O'Connor, President, Pure Milk Products Corporation; Professor Margaret Pryor, Economics Department, University of Wisconsin; Jac F. Friedrich, Executive Committee, State Federation of Labor.

Saturday, 7:30 P. M.

Illustration of some of the teaching methods in the Summer School for Workers.

Sunday, July 31, 10 A. M.

Labor and the Depression.....Henry Ohl, Jr.
President, State Federation of Labor

Discussion leaders: J. M. Conway, President, Hoberg Paper and Fibre Company, Green Bay; D. D. Lescohier, Economics Department, University of Wisconsin; B. J. Gehrmann, President, Wisconsin Society of Equity.

Sunday, 1 P. M.

Luncheon meeting, Advisory Committee Summer School for Workers, at the Memorial Union.

Each session of the Institute will be two hours in length. The first 45 minutes will be given over to the speaker. His talk will be followed by ten-minute criticisms and comments from several experts. The meeting will then be thrown open for general discussion in which all are urged to join.

Headquarters for the Institute are the Theta Delta Chi House, 22 Langdon street, where the women students in the Summer School for Workers live and both women and men eat. Guests of the Institute are welcome to use the living-rooms, telephones, bathing beach and pier, and the dressing rooms which will be set aside for both men and women guests who wish to swim.

A swimming party will be held at the Theta Delta Chi pier, 22 Langdon street, at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, followed by a buffet supper at 6 o'clock on the lawn. The charge will be 60 cents. Please make reservations at the registration desk.

Please register once during the session at the door of 165 Bascom Hall.