YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND

A CONFERENCE ON FARM-CITY PROBLEMS

The Conference Will Be Held at the Schroeder Hotel
Saturday, February 27, 1954, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

SPEAKERS

RAYMOND J. PENN, Professor of Agricultural Economics, University of Wisconsin.

ROBERT G. LEWIS, Editor of National Farmers Weekly Report of the Farmers Union, Formerly Public Relations Director of Wisconsin Electric Co-operative.

MILO K. SWANTON, Executive Secretary, Wisconsin Council of Agriculture; Member President's National Agriculture Committee.

A Member of the AFL National Office Staff.

Here are some questions the conference will attempt to answer:

Are food prices too high?

What should be done about surplus food stocks?

Is the farmer getting a fair share of the consumer dollar?

What will flexible price supports do to the Wisconsin farmer?

Do city workers and farmers have any common interests?
